

APPENDIX 4: BALLPARKS AND CITIES HOSTING THE MOST MARATHONS

BALLPARKS

- Five - Braves Field, Boston
- Four - Comiskey Park (I), Chicago; Al Lang Field, St. Petersburg
- Three - MacArthur Stadium, Syracuse; V.J. Keefe Stadium, San Antonio; Washington Park, Los Angeles; Wrigley Field, Chicago; Lucky Beaver Stadium, Portland
- Two - Panther Park, Fort Worth; McNulty Park, Tulsa; McCoy Stadium, Pawtucket; Engel Stadium, Chattanooga; Cooper Stadium, Columbus; Disch Field, Austin; Community Field (II), Burlington (Iowa); Municipal Park, Sanford; Waterloo Stadium, Waterloo; Municipal Stadium, San Jose; Fort Lauderdale Stadium, Fort Lauderdale; Ed Smith Stadium, Sarasota; Huntington Grounds, Boston; Baker Bowl, Philadelphia; Met Stadium, Bloomington; DC/RFK Stadium, Washington; Astrodome, Houston; Stade Olympique, Montreal; Shea Stadium, New York; Veterans Stadium, Philadelphia; Jack Murphy Stadium, San Diego; Bishop Carroll High School Field, Wichita; Hoolulu Park, Hilo; Korakuen Kyujyo, Tokyo; Estadio Angel Flores, Culiacan, Mexico; Agricultural Grounds, Worcester; Athletic Grounds, Sheboygan; Wehrle Park, Newark (Ohio); Playland Park, South Bend; Dunn Field, Elmira

CITIES

- Eleven - Boston (Braves 5, Red Sox 3, Amateur 2, Grammar School 1)
- Eight - Chicago (Cubs 3, American Giants 2, White Sox 3)
- Seven - San Antonio
- Six - Philadelphia (High School 1, Athletics 1, Phillies 4)
Havana
- Five - Burlington (Iowa 3, North Carolina 1, Vermont 1)