AUGUST 2004

Here we are past the All Star halfway mark and a few more months of misery with our local Diamondbacks. I was unable to attend the SABR convention, and thanks to John Schleppe for handing the meeting and acting in my behalf.

I had a chance to attend a game in Des Moines, Iowa in June and saw the Iowa Cubs. A very nice park and you are really close to the action. Wanted to attend the AA ALLSTAR game later that week in Cedar Rapids but had to get home.

I am almost thru reading a new book that treats SABR nicely. Titled , THE NUMBERS GAME by Alan Schwarz gives a great history about numbers, the people behind the creation of statistics, uses, etc. A nice quick read. Try Half.com, or Amazon.com and you might find a used copy.
